

John Day

Senior Analyst at BNY Mellon

New York, NY

-Email me on Indeed: <http://www.indeed.com/r/John-Day/82a8c7c983fbde13>

A former Division-One athlete for a top-ranked program, John graduated Cornell in December 2020. After a year as a project manager and estimator in a rotational program for construction management company, he transitioned to the financial services industry. Since April 2022, John has been part of the FX Overlay team at BNY Mellon. He passed the SIE exam in December 2021 and the CFA Level I test in May 2023.

Willing to relocate to: Raleigh-Durham, NC - Washington, DC -

Authorized to work in the US for any employer

Work Experience

Senior Analyst

BNY Mellon - New York, NY

April 2022 to Present

- Generates transactions to hedge foreign exchange risk for approximately $55 billion assets under administration
- Serves as FX Overlay subject matter expert and responds to client queries regarding trade execution and hedge positions
- Acts as intermediary for fund accounting, operations, credit, and trading teams to create interdisciplinary cohesion and enhance operational efficiency

Rotational Program Trainee

JRM Construction Management, LLC - New York, NY

April 2021 to March 2022

Project Manager

- Managed operations for multiple high-end interior construction projects with a combined contract value of over $5 million
 - Created cash flow forecasts and project schedules, as well as coordinated and communicated with union tradesmen to ensure quality and timeliness of project deliverables
 - Charged with serving as the interface between daily construction activity and the project client by using daily communication and weekly formalized presentations regarding progress on current projects
- Estimator
- Created budget estimates using Excel models for various projects worth up to $1.5 million
 - Developed scope of work for projects by analyzing construction drawings and researching past projects
 - Communicated through various mediums with 50+ subcontractors per day to convey scope of work and persuade them to bid

Lab Analyst

Zwanger-Pesiri Radiology - Stony Brook, NY

February 2017 to April 2021

- Post-processed CT and MRI scans to assist doctors in diagnosis

Intern

Imian Partners - New York, NY

May 2019 to August 2019

- Tracked the development of an 11-story Brooklyn apartment building; presented weekly progress reports to senior managers
- Shadowed a construction project manager and a real estate analyst

Education

Bachelor's in Industrial and Labor Relations

Cornell University, School of Industrial and Labor Relations - Ithaca, NY

December 2020

Awards

USA Today 2nd Team All-USA High School Lacrosse

2016

Certifications and Licenses

OSHA 30

Microsoft Excel

April 2019 to Present

Microsoft Excel Specialist Certified